

Page 1

Panel 1

In the hallway of the house, in front of the protagonist's room, the door is open. Voices can be heard from the living room (her parents are arguing).

Panel 2

In the hallway of the house.

(Off-screen): - I can't stand you anymore!

- Me neither!

- Because of you, we lost everything!

- Don't start that again...

- What about Paulina? Have you thought about her at all?

- Shut up! I can't stand you!

Panel 3

Entering Paulina's room, she is sitting on her bed holding a book. The voices continue to be heard.

Panel 4

Paulina gets up to close her bedroom door.

Paulina (thinking): Here we go again... they're always fighting!

Panel 5

Paulina sits back down on her bed and starts reading her book.

Panel 6

Paulina cannot concentrate on her book because of the noise.

Page 2

Panel 1

Paulina puts down her book and picks up her sketchbook.

Panel 2

She takes her headphones and puts them on.

Panel 3

The voices are still audible.

Panel 4

She gets up and leaves the room.

Panel 5

She walks to the door and puts on her shoes.

Panel 6

Paulina grabs her jacket and storms out, slamming the door behind her. Her parents are still arguing.

Page 3

Panel 1

Outside, nighttime. Paulina runs away from her house.

Paulina (thinking): How far do I have to go to not hear them?

Panel 2

Paulina keeps running.

Panel 3

She slowly stops running.

Panel 4

She walks through the city.

Panel 5

As she walks and the wind blows in her face, she looks up at the sky.

Paulina (thinking): How refreshing! Now I can breathe again.

Panel 6

She continues walking.

Page 4

Panel 1

Paulina notices a light in the distance.

Paulina (thinking): What is that light? Is there a celebration in the square?

Panel 2

Paulina approaches the light.

Panel 3

She reaches the square, the light is brighter but Paulina cannot see clearly.

Panel 4

Paulina (thinking): It's coming from there.

Panel 5

Paulina walks across the square, following the light.

Panel 6

Almost hidden, Paulina finds a carousel. It was bright and moving normally.

Page 5

Panel 1

Paulina approaches it further.

Panel 2

She looks with admiration at the large carousel in front of her.

Panel 3

She notices the details on the carousel.

Paulina: Wow!

Panel 4

A voice speaks to her.

(Off-screen): It really is amazing!

Panel 5

Paulina is startled and looks around to see who spoke to her.

Panel 6

The carousel stops.

Panel 7

Paulina notices a figure sitting on a horse on the carousel and is surprised.