VICKI VS THE ODD ONES: THE ORANGE BOOTH

PAGE 1

Full shot – Establishing shot of an amusement park full of life and activities.

Vicki narrating

My name is Vicki and I am eleven-years-old. The amusement park in my town is my favourite place to go to. It has all the best rides and I love them all.

PAGE 2

1: Vicki and her parents are walking through the amusement park.

Vicki narrating

Mom, Dad, and I go there every weekend and I know just about every part of it.

2: The family are in a rollercoaster having fun.

Vicki narrating

I know which rides are more fun.

3: The family is buying snacks from a kiosk.

Vicki narrating

I know which snacks taste better.

4: ANGLE ON – A large orange photo booth.

Vicki narrating

But why have I not seen this Orange Booth before?

PAGE 3

1: People are trooping into the photo booth.

Vicki narrating

It just came out of nowhere.

2: There is a couple inside the booth posing for a shot.

Vicki narrating

Mommy said you get your picture taken for free if you go in.

3: CLOSE SHOT – A photo of the couple.

Vicki narrating

The photos were nice though.

4: There are people scattered all over the orange booth, talking and laughing.

Vicki narrating

And it made everyone happy for a while until...

1: Vicki and her classmates sit in a classroom.

Vicki narrating

I saw the first one in school on a Monday morning.

2: A teacher is pointing at the board while a tall shadow monster tower behind him/her.

MONSTER DESCRIPTION – Tall, lanky, wide smile, hollow eyes.

Vicki narrating

It was standing behind my favourite teacher

3: People are in a church and each one has a monster behind them.

Vicki narrating

No one was safe from them and I saw them everywhere.

4: People in a supermarket – The monsters are behind them.

Vicki narrating

They didn’t hurt anyone at first and I pretended to not see them.
